

Maxcy Hall Building, University of New Haven Campus

How to Apply

- Interested students will apply for the program alongside or shortly after registering with ARC.
- Application Form:

- Email all supplemental forms (official transcripts, IEP or 504 Plan, 2 recommendation letters, educational, and neuro/psychological to evaluations to ARC@newhaven.edu or via fax to (203) 931-6082
- Only completed applications will be considered
- Applications due July 1st, 2022

About Us

More Than Access at the University of New Haven is a support program for students with autism, NVLD, and PDD. This program is intended to support students from start. This is a FERPA compliant non-fee-based program; however, a limited number of participants will be selected.

Contact Us

Phone: (203) 932-7332

Fax (203) 931-6082:

Email: ARC@newhaven.edu

Register with ARC:

University of New Haven
300 Boston Post Road
West Haven, CT 06516

University of New Haven

More Than Access

Accessibility Resource Center
(ARC)

Our Mission

To provide transitional support for students diagnosed with autism, NVLD, and PDD. To increase college success and career outcomes for students.

“Autism is not a disability, it’s a different ability”

-Stuart Duncan

Eligibility

- Full-time student with the University
- Registered with ARC
- Must be formally diagnosed with autism spectrum disorder (ASD), NVLD, or PDD

Student Centered Engagement

- Eligible students will meet with graduate staff twice a week and professional staff once a week
- Meetings will be conducted in person as much as possible
- Peer mentors are trained on supporting students and their interests including participation in student organizations, events/activities on campus
- Individual and group counseling through CAPS

What we do

- Academic coaching/advising
- Assisting with organization and time management
- Building communication and social skills
- Promoting participation on campus
- Helping with access to university resources

Career preparation and planning

- Assessing for and providing appropriate academic accommodations
- Referring to Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) as necessary